

REGULATIONS FOR STUDENT CLUBS AND ASSOCIATIONS
OF THE UNIVERSIDAD EUROPEA DE ANDALUCÍA

Explanatory Memorandum

The Core Right of Association is enshrined in general terms in Article 22 of our Magna Carta, a Core right that can also be contemplated from a professional or group or class perspective. In this sense, Article 34 of Organic Law 2/2023, of University System, contemplates the possibility that student associations may be set up in the university academic sphere, whose specific aims would be oriented towards participation in university academic life, promoting the carrying out of cultural or scientific activities in its own bosom with full freedom and autonomy.

Similarly, this regulation includes the figure of the Club, defined as "a group of students with common interests and dedicated to activities of different kinds, mainly recreational, sporting or cultural activities within the University".

The Core right of association constitutes a sociological phenomenon as an instrument of participation and integration in society, and its exercise is regulated by Organic Law 1/2002, of 22 March, regulating the Right of Association.

In the Autonomous Community of Andalusia, Article 13.25 of its Statute of Autonomy assigns to this Community the implementation of State legislation in the subject of Associations. Likewise, Law 4/2006 of 23 June 2006 on Andalusian Associations regulates the associations that carry out their activities in Andalusia.

In view of the above, Universidad Europea de Andalucía, within the framework of its regulatory autonomy and through its Governing Council, hereby approves these Regulations, which will serve as a channel to channel the creation, development and promotion of Students' Unions and Clubs within Universidad Europea de Andalucía, which will enjoy full functional and budgetary autonomy, always respecting the legal system and the rules that are specific to our Institution.

Chapter I: General principles

Art. 1.

Student Clubs and Associations of Universidad Europea de Andalucía shall be considered to be all those that are constituted in accordance with these Regulations and carry out their activities within the scope of this University.

The University may ask Associations and Clubs created under these regulations for a report on their activities with the schedule it deems appropriate and reserves the right to remove the Association's status from the University if the activities are not carried out in accordance with the provisions of these regulations or if they damage the image and reputation of the University.

event is to be held. However, any event that, due to its nature or special circumstances, cannot be announced at least 15 days in advance, may be held provided that the material and human resources are available and that it can be held without seriously jeopardising the rest of the activities already programmed.
